

Recipient	Project Name	Project Description	Award Amount	State
University of Wyoming	Risk Management Education Addressing Agricultural Act of 2014 Implications for Wyoming Famers/Ranchers including Beginning, Retiring/Transitioning Producers	Will ensure that farmers/ranchers in Wyoming are well- informed of risk management solutions to allow them to take full advantage of crop insurance and other risk controls including changes impacted them from the Agriculture Act of 2014.	$ 293,000.00	WY
Custom Ag Solutions	Crop Insurance Program Education and Promotion for Utah's Beginning, Livestock, and Traditional Producers including the impacts of the Agricultural Act of 2014	Will work with RMA and seven partner organizations to improve Utah producers' awareness, understanding, and utilization of Federal crop insurance programs.	$ 316,000.00	UT
University of Nevada Cooperative Extension	Nevada Risk Management Targeted States Crop and Livestock Insurance Education Project with information on the Agricultural Act of 2014	Will focus on increasing producer awareness and understanding of federal crop/livestock and revenue insurance programs in Nevada, which is a Strike Force state. A holistic approach will be taken to create specific agricultural profitability scenarios utilizing risk management insurance products under each of the programs.	$ 216,299.00	NV
AgriLogic Consulting, LLC	Educating Hawaii Producers on Crop Insurance and related Risk Management Strategies for Specialty Crops and Priority Commodities to Increase Program Participation	Will partner with Hawaii Tropical Fruit Growers Association and the Pacific Gateway Center to deliver crop insurance education to underserved farmers of priority commodities and specialty crops in Hawaii.	$ 242,724.00	HA
University of Massachusetts (UMass) Extension	UMass Extension Comprehensive Crop Insurance/Risk Management Education Program including Beginning, Retiring/Transitioning and Organic Producers and the impacts of the Agricultural Act of 2014	To deliver a comprehensive crop insurance/risk management education program to all Massachusetts agricultural producers with emphasis to beginning, legal immigrant, socially disadvantaged, and organic producers, one of the largest growing segments in Massachusetts.	$ 235,974.00	MA
University of Vermont and State Agricultural College	Crop Insurance and Risk Management Education in Vermont with emphasis on Milk Margin Protection and LGM Dairy insurance program as well as the impacts from the Agricultural Act of 2014	Will help Vermont farmers become better acquainted with the potential benefits risk management through dairy insurance under the Milk Margin Protection Program and LGM Dairy.	$ 258,999.00	VT
WV Department of Agriculture	Risk Management Education for West Virginia Farmers with information on the Agricultural Act of 2014	Will teach West Virginia small and diversified farmers to recognize and manage risk.	$ 242,000.00	WV

Recipient	Project Name	Project Description	Award Amount	State
Maryland Department of Agriculture	Maryland Crop Insurance Education and Promotion Project with emphasis on small farms and organic farms as well as an overview of the Agricultural Act of 2014	Will assist Maryland farmers in making educated risk management decisions for their farms. The 2012 Ag Census showed that there 12,526 farming operations in Maryland. More than 119 farms are CSAs and more than 91 are organic farms.	$ 371,000.00	MD
University of Maine Cooperative Extension	Crop Insurance Education for Maine including the changes impacting Maine producers from the Agriculture Act of 2014	Will provide crop insurance education to Maine farmers including changes from the Agriculture Act of 2014 as well as issues facing small diversified or organic farms.	$ 195,379.00	ME
University of Connecticut	Crop Insurance and Risk Management Promotion, Education and Training for Connecticut Farmers and Growers including information on the Agriculture Act of 2014	Will train Connecticut farmers and specialty crop growers on existing and emerging crop insurance products, including the new Whole Farm Revenue Insurance Program, as well as impacts from the Agriculture Act of 2014.	$ 250,000.00	CT
University of Rhode Island	Risk Management and Crop Insurance Education for Rhode Island Growers including changes resulting from the Agriculture Act of 2014	Will offer educational meetings that have been well attended in the past which have included some aspect of crop production (pruning, cover crops, organic growing) or integrated pest management, with pesticide recertification credits offered where appropriate.	$ 206,000.00	RI
New Jersey Department of Agriculture	Crop Insurance Education for New Jersey Farmers	Will develop and implement a comprehensive crop insurance education program that ensures New Jersey farmers are well informed so they can take advantage of existing and emerging crop insurance products.	$ 282,000.00	NJ
Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture	Crop Insurance Education Program and the 2014 Agricultural Act impacts	Will provide crop insurance education and information for Pennsylvania farmers to help them better understand and utilize the many risk management options available.	$ 700,000.00	PA
New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets	New Farm Bill Crop Insurance Options for NYS Producers	To provide crop insurance information to all producers throughout New York State prior to sign-up deadlines. Will target organic, beginning, and traditional producers, those transitioning the farm from one generation to the next, and producers selling in the State's more than 500 farmers' markets. The impacts of the project will be many more informed decisions by producers, resulting in 200 additional producers using crop insurance.	$ 586,000.00	NY

Recipient	Project Name	Project Description	Award Amount	State
University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension	Risk Management and Crop Insurance Education for New Hampshire Farmers with information on the Agriculture Act of 2014	Will reach 1,000 NH farmers via educational programs focusing on managing production, marketing, and human resource risks. These programs will also help farmers understand the kinds of risks addressed by crop insurance, use of crop insurance in managing these risks, features of emerging policies and how crop insurance can affect other management decisions.	$ 214,332.00	NH