

Chairman Statement

Previously the Board provided notice that it would not consider any new crops for the Actual Revenue History (ARH) plan of insurance until it could conduct a program review of the Strawberry ARH policy. The Strawberry ARH policy is still under review. Therefore, the Board provides notice that it's moratorium on considering any new ARH policies continues to remain in effect until an effective evaluation can be done.